

Professor Annema, MD PhD, pulmonologist , is working at the AMC hospital in Amsterdam. The Netherlands.

He is professor of Pulmonary Endoscopy and aims to do clinical research to improve current diagnostic and therapeutic strategies.

His PhD was on endosonography and the diagnosis and staging of lung cancer and the assessment of sarcoidosis.

Dr Annema, published over 100 articles in peer – reviewed journals, wrote several book chapters and organized numerous course on endosonography and transthoracic ultrasound.

Dr. Annema is the chair of IP of the ERS, initiator of ERS Live Endoscopy and co – initiator of the ERS EBUS training and certification programme.